The Organization

DeltaArts is the local arts agency serving Crittenden County and surrounding counties of eastern Arkansas. DeltaArts provides a comprehensive program of services including visual arts exhibits and shows, six youth theater productions, two summer youth conservatories, cooperative ventures with professional Memphis arts organizations, community theater, a 14-part school matinee series, and community collaborative projects. DeltaArts is home to both the Delta Wolf Trap program (one of 15 regional Wolf Trap programs in the nation) and the Delta Aesthetic Education Institute (based on the Lincoln Center Institute model). These regional programs focus on teacher professional development and classroom residencies centered around selected works of art for teachers and students in east Arkansas, west Tennessee, and north Mississippi.
