The Organization

The Auditorium Theatre of Roosevelt University is an independent not-for-profit organization committed to presenting the finest in international, cultural and community programming to Chicago and to the continued restoration and preservation of the National Historic Landmark Auditorium Theatre.

Our Department of Creative Engagement offers a wide variety of diverse arts opportunities for students and teachers. From professional development for teachers, in-school residencies, master classes and a dynamic student matinee series to historic theatre tours and traveling musical productions with accompanying curriculum and lesson plans, the Auditorium Theatre strives to provide meaningful and accessible arts experiences to students young and old.

Our unique summer camp Hands Together, Heart to Art is designed for children who have lost a parent to death. Using the arts to emphasize team building, self-esteem and problem solving, the program encourages communication, fosters emotional growth, and provides the consolation of friendship and compassion. For more information on camp, please visit www.hthta.org.
